

DEPARTMENT OF CATECHESIS ARCHDIOCESE OF ERNAKULAM – ANGAMALY

POSSIBLE ESSAYS FOR CLASSES VII to IX

1. True faith leads us into the light of realization that, even when all possibilities seem to have ended, nothing is impossible for God. Please elaborate on your understanding and perspectives.
2. Blessed Carlo Acutis, a young modern-day witness, exemplified how deep holiness can be attained through devotion to the Eucharist and engagement with contemporary media. Reflect on how Carlo's life has inspired you personally. Considering his example, discuss concrete ways you can leverage various media platforms to share your faith with others.
3. "Let us grow in prayer" is the motto of this year of faith formation. What are the key insights you have gained through the faith formation classes this year?
4. How do regular confession and daily participation in the Holy Qurbana help strengthen your personal relationship with Jesus Christ? What challenges do you face in living a virtuous life during your adolescence? Additionally, how can the transformative power of prayer support your journey towards holiness?
5. Children are vulnerable to various forms of exploitation. What are the common types of exploitation they face, and how can you help support a friend who is a victim of such exploitation?
6. Explain the ways you follow to deepen your faith. As Christians, how can you be a true witness of Christ to your friends and society through your words, actions, and outlook?
7. What are the important Christian perspectives you have gained through this year's faith formation classes? Have the catechism classes enabled you to develop a deeper understanding and commitment to witnessing your faith?
